INTRODUCTION

Dragon Mandarin Immersion School (DMIS) is a nonprofit Mandarin-English immersion school in Houston, serving students from PreK4 through 5th grade and expanding. Through our partnership with Houston Dragon Academy, DMIS has an established campus, experienced faculty and a full enrichment program.

Students at DMIS learn in Mandarin and English every day, within a rigorous core curriculum that builds true bilingual fluency. Our commitment to access extends beyond the classroom. Need-based scholarships and daily transportation from Chinatown make bilingual education possible for families across Houston. Our enrichment programs include a state championship robotics team, chess, calligraphy and the arts. Together, they prepare students from every background to become confident, globally minded leaders.
